

Suggested Items to Bring

Soft canvas or nylon bags to slide under your bunk
Informal clothes that can be layered
Jeans & shorts
T-shirts (both long and short sleeves)
Sweatshirt or sweater, and windbreaker
Bathing suit, beach towel
Rubber soled shoes or sneakers
Sun hat
Sun glasses
Rain gear (jacket or poncho)
Coat, hat, gloves for early and late season trips
Sleeping bag for sleeping on deck
Prescription medications
Toiletries (soap, shampoo, etc.)
Sun tan lotion
Disposable wipes
Camera, film, extra batteries
Small flashlight
Clip-on book light for avid readers
Binoculars
Musical instrument
Book, journal, sketchpad
Favorite board game
Ear plugs for light sleepers
Folding soft canoe seat (esp. if you have back problems)
Carbonated beverages, alcohol in moderation
Carefree hairdo, sense of humor, & singing voice.
Insect repellent (for walks ashore)
Ginger candy, sea bracelets, Dramamine only if you are prone to motion sickness.

Things to forget

Hair dryers and electric razors
Hard or bulky suitcases
Radios (except with headphones)
Fancy clothing & makeup
Stress
Cell phones & laptops (If you must bring them, please use discreetly)